

Visit to Lakhi Ram Anathalaya, Rohtak on the occasion of Children's Day

On 14th November 2024, the Faculty of Law at Baba Mastnath University (BMU) organized a visit to Lakhi Ram Anathalaya, Rohtak, to celebrate Children's Day. This meaningful event, held at the departmental level, aimed to bring joy and encouragement to the children residing in the orphanage while fostering a spirit of empathy and social responsibility among participants. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Ms. Tarannum Khan, Chief Judicial Magistrate-cum-Secretary, District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Rohtak. The initiative was convened by Dr. Parmila, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, and witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 25 individuals, including students and faculty members.

The visit began with an inaugural address by Ms. Tarannum Khan, who highlighted the importance of Children's Day and the collective responsibility of society to ensure the welfare and rights of children. The participants engaged in interactive activities with the children, including storytelling, games, and motivational talks. Gifts and essential supplies were distributed to the children, spreading happiness and fostering a sense of belonging. Dr. Parmila and her team ensured the smooth execution of the event, creating a warm and joyous atmosphere for everyone involved.

The visit to Lakhi Ram Anathalaya on the occasion of Children's Day underscores the significance of nurturing and empowering underprivileged children, who are the future of society. By reaching out to these children, the event aimed to inspire hope, resilience, and a sense of community. This initiative aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly SDG 1 (No Poverty), SDG 4 (Quality Education), and SDG 10 (Reduced Inequalities). Through such efforts, the Faculty of Law at BMU reaffirms its commitment to social justice and inclusivity, contributing to a more equitable and compassionate society.

The event saw active participation from 25 students and faculty members, who engaged wholeheartedly with the children. The interactions fostered a deeper understanding of societal challenges and inspired participants to contribute to the betterment of marginalized communities. The visit not only brought smiles to the children's faces but also left a lasting impression on the participants, motivating them to actively work towards social welfare and child rights in their professional and personal lives.

The visit to Lakhi Ram Anathalaya on Children's Day was a heartwarming and impactful initiative by the Faculty of Law at Baba Mastnath University. By spreading joy and fostering connections, the event highlighted the transformative power of empathy and collective action. It reaffirmed the university's dedication to creating socially responsible individuals who are committed to the betterment of society and the realization of global sustainability goals.
